ABOUT ME

I am pursuing my undergaduation in Computer Science Engineering from Bhagwan Parshuram Institute of Technology, GGSIPU Delhi. I am an innovative and enthusiastic person. I am focused and learning new things excites me. My passion in life is to gain knowledge. I don't fear failures or rejections, they are just ways to enrich you and glorify your personality. Failures are experiences you gain from your mistakes. I aspire to be an excellent Software Engineer and use my skills to make something productive and useful for my nation. My greatest strength is my positive attitude, even during the hardest of times. To never give up no matter how hard things hit me up.
